

11th Annual Bankruptcy Forum

The Lodge at Buckberry Creek
April 4 – 6, 2014 – Gatlinburg, TN

The 11th Annual Tennessee Bar Association Bankruptcy Forum will take place April 4 – April 6, 2014, at the beautiful Lodge at Buckberry Creek in Gatlinburg, Tennessee. Please make plans now to join us in this wonderful and relaxing setting for an informative and unique presentation of current issues of interest to a wide variety of bankruptcy attorneys. Seating is limited to preserve the unique nature of this seminar.

This high-quality program will begin with an update on the recent bankruptcy case developments in the Sixth Circuit and around the country. Friday afternoon's case update will be followed by a panel discussion of current issues of interest to Tennessee insolvency practitioners. On Saturday, attendees will be organized into small groups with a discussion leader drawn from a faculty of prominent bankruptcy judges. These small group discussions will focus on case problems that bring into focus recent developments in the law and real world problems that bankruptcy practitioners face. Group leaders will encourage the participants to analyze, discuss, and argue different approaches to the case studies. The program closes on Sunday with a three-hour session devoted to the ethical issues that arise in bankruptcy.

This year's faculty includes four (4) United States Bankruptcy Judges including: Hon. Paul Bonapfel (Bankr. N.D. of GA); Hon. James Croom (Bankr. W.D. of TN); Hon. Marcia P. Parsons (Bankr. E.D. of TN); and Hon. Shelley D. Rucker (Bankr. E.D. of TN). The faculty also includes Hon. William Brown (Retired Bankruptcy Judge of W.D. of TN), Lawrence Ahern and Kathi Allen.
