

LGBT Law Annual Forum 2016

September 22, 2016

Program Description:

This year's annual forum will discuss updates in legislation and case law affecting the LGBT community, as well as best practices in civil rights cases and religious freedom cases. Also included is a session on practice tips for representing transgender clients. In addition, we will have an ethics session on representing and communicating with clients in the LGBT community. Lunch will be provided allowing for networking.

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 11:30-12:00pm | Registration and Lunch |
| 12:00-1:00pm | Ethical Considerations: Representing and Communicating with Clients in the LGBT Community
Dr. Jesse Ehrenfeld, Vanderbilt University |
| 1:00-2:00pm | Prosecuting Civil Rights Actions & Religious Freedom
Shannon Minter, National Center for Lesbian Rights |
| 2:00-3:00pm | Representing Transgender Clients
Professor Marisa Richmond, Middle Tennessee State University
Abby Rubinfeld, Rubinfeld Law Office |
| 3:00-3:15pm | Break |
| 3:15-4:15pm | Legislative and Case Law Update
Chris Sanders, Tennessee Equality Project
Professor Valorie Vojdik, University of Tennessee College of Law
Hedy Weinberg, ACLU of Tennessee |
| 4:15-4:45 | TBA Special Committee on the Evolving Legal Market Report
Jason Long, TBA President, Lowe, Yeager & Brown |