

Tort and Insurance 2017

March 31, 2017

Bar Center – Nashville, Tenn.

Program Producer: Kreis White

Total Credits: 5 general, 1 dual

This full day forum offers essential and practical material for Tort and Insurance attorneys and those interested in Tort and Insurance Law. Three morning sessions will address the effects of recent West and Dedmon cases from the perspectives of both plaintiff and defense. Further sessions will cover the Claims Commission Act and the Tennessee Governmental Tort Liability Act. The program will also offer a special session on how millennial jurors make decisions. A final session will provide new information about the technology-driven changes taking place in today's legal landscape and the modern law practice
