

Elder Law Forum 2018

July 13, 2018

AT&T Building – Nashville, Tenn.

Program Producer: J. Barry, J Barry Law Office

Total Credits: 4 General, 2 Dual

This full day forum offers essential and practical material for practicing Elder Law Attorneys and those interested in Elder Law. The program will start with a presentation on succession planning and office management. Respected subject matter experts will share new and timely information related to Medicaid appeals, VA applications, conservatorships and decision-making issues. A new session this year will focus on emerging insurance and payment trends in healthcare. A final session will cover ethics and elder law. The annual forum is a great time to connect with practitioners from across the state and catch up on the latest developments for our practice area.
