

Tort & Insurance Forum 2025

February 20 – Live/Virtual Seminar

Program Producer: Jordan Neiderland, Rainey Kizer

Total Credits: 2 General, 1 Dual

Join the Tort and Insurance Law section on February 20 for their annual forum. This 2-hour General, 1-hour Dual CLE program will feature sessions covering first party claims, healthcare liability, and an ethics course dedicated to the fine art of getting what you want/need without being a jerk.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| 9:00 am – 10:00 am CT | Basics of First Party Insurance Appraisal
This program will explore the basic tenants of first party insurance and how the appraisal process works in the context of first party insurance claims, both before litigation and during litigation. This includes the process for naming appraisers, selection of an umpire, and the authority of an appraisal panel including counsel's role before, during and after the appraisal process.
Jonathan Stewart, Rainey Kizer
Jonathan Bobbitt, McWherter Scott & Bobbitt |
| 10:00am – 10:15am CT | Break |
| 10:15am – 11:15am CT
Dual | How an Attorney Can Be a Bad Ass, Not an Ass
In this session, seasoned attorney Rusty Reviere reviews ethical obligations to opposing counsel and the Courts in an entertaining way.
Rusty Reviere, Rainey Kizer |
| 11:15am – 11:30am CT | Break |
| 11:30am – 12:30pm CT | Turning Tides: Trends in the Ever-Evolving Tennessee Health Care Liability Act Jurisprudence
This session will include an analysis of the most recent cases from the appellate courts in Tennessee about what constitutes compliance the THCLA requirements and the corresponding effect on statute of limitations and repose for THCLA cases. This session will also delve into the corresponding recent trends for these issues, as compared with previous cases.
Meagan Collver, Lewis Thomason |