

Lead Law
Nashville, Tennessee
October 23, 2015

Join lawyers from across the state and the U.S. for a live-streamed simulcast on leadership. This event is designed specifically to equip lawyers with new perspectives and practical tools in the area of lawyer leadership.

The full day of leadership development will be packed with amazing, high level information, and feature experience presenters covering topics such as: what it means to lead lawyers in times of uncertainty, effective leadership of a practice group or client project, applied leadership to law firms, and what it means for a lawyer to be a servant to society...and more. Leadership training will focus on:

- Leading yourself
- Leading your clients
- Leading your firm
- Leading within the legal community
- Leading through a future of change

You will learn techniques for developing the collective leadership skills of your team and gain understanding into how to innovatively collaborate, create and execute so that you will exceed your firm's standards for performance, productivity and sustainability.

So whether you're the leader of a large or medium size firm, or you run a smaller, two-lawyer operation, you will learn strategies from the best, and take your career to the next level.

Onsite Moderator for Tennessee Bar Association: _____
