

AGENDA

Creditors Practice Annual Forum

September 18, 2019

Tennessee Bar Center - Nashville, Tennessee

Program Producer: Nathan Lybarger, The Law Office of Hall & Associates

Total Credits: 3 General 1 Dual

This annual forum will give attorneys in the creditors practice field an opportunity to learn about construction liens and hear tips for bankruptcy and judgement collection. End your day with a unique ethics presentation by Jarred Johnson, owner of Sue The Collector, and Section Chair-Elect David Anthony to refresh your knowledge on the FDCPA, your ethical obligations and learn some of the tricks used by plaintiffs' attorneys to sue collectors and creditor attorneys.

---

11 - 11:30 a.m.

Registration

11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Construction Law Payment Disputes

This session will explore collections and liens when it comes to construction.

I'Ashea Myles-Dihigo, Bone McAllester Norton PLLC

12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

2019 CFPB Update & How It Should Impact Your Practice

Explore recent updates to the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau ("CFPB"). Take a look at the CFPB's power under the current administration and future prospects in 2020. Learn how the CFPB impacts Tennessee practitioners in debt-collection litigation and experience examples of practical application to maximize results for clients in your practice.

Lauren M. Poole, Taylor Pigue Marchetti & Blair PLC

1:30 - 1:45 p.m.

Break

- 1:45 - 2:45 p.m.      Tips that Debtors' Lawyers Don't Want Creditors to Know:
Bankruptcy & Judgment Collection in Tennessee
Attend this session to hear from the other side, debtors' lawyers! Learn what happens in bankruptcy, what you should do when you learn of a bankruptcy, and how you can protect your clients' rights.
Griffin Dunham, Dunham Hildebrand, PLLC
Gray Waldron, Dunham Hildebrand, PLLC
- 2:45 - 3:45 p.m.      One Weird Trick to Suing Your Debt Collectors and Their Lawyers:
How Plaintiffs' Attorneys are Cashing in on Your FDCPA Mistakes
DUAL      With credit card defaults hitting new highs since 2007, debt collectors and creditor attorneys are certain to make ethical mistakes enforcing their creditor rights. Attend this session to learn how plaintiffs' firms make it rain for their clients and what makes an unbeatable collection lawsuit, so you can avoid making the same costly, unethical mistakes.
David Anthony, Bone McAllester Norton PLLC
Jarred Johnson, Owner, Sue The Collector
- 3:45 - 4:45 p.m.      Networking Reception
Make plans to mingle with fellow attendees and section executive council members at a casual reception immediately following the program. Enjoy a selection of hor d'oeuvres along with a variety of beer, wine and soft drinks.