

Agenda

March 30, 2021

Live Virtual Webinar

Litigation Law Ethics Forum 2021

Program Producer: Todd Presnell, Bradley

Total Credits 3 Dual

The TBA Litigation Ethics Forum has all that a Tennessee lawyer needs to secure ethics CLE credit in a single, engaging, and thoughtful event. First, you will hear the most up-to-date commentary and analysis of litigation and other concerns about vaccines and Covid-related issues in the workplace. After that, stay tuned for an important and riveting discussion on legal aid organizations and access-to-justice issues exacerbated by the pandemic. And finally, a group of seasoned litigators will dive into the tricky ethical issues that arise when mixing jurors, jury selection, and social media.

9:00 – 10:00 am

Legal Aid and the Importance of Access to Justice

This session will provide a rundown of lawyer ethical responsibilities related to pro bono/access to justice while discussing the history and structure of the national Legal Services Corporation and grantee legal aid organizations, especially those in TN. Attendees will have to opportunity to learn more about the increasing need for legal aid and assistance with access to justice, especially during this pandemic with evictions, scams, etc. rising to crisis level proportions

Eric Osborne, Sherrard Roe Voigt & Harbison

10:00 - 11:00 am

And You Thought Quarantine Was Bad: An Assessment Of COVID-19 Related Issues Awaiting Counsel Upon Their Return to The Office

This will be an exciting, informative, and hopefully, entertaining review of the “real life” problems/opportunities facing both litigators and non-litigators in the midst of the ongoing pandemic.

John Bode, Miller & Martin

11:00 - 11:15 am

Break

11:15 am -12:15 pm

Would you be my friend? Ethically Harnessing Social Media for Jury Selection

Panel discussion will explore the ethical uses and pitfalls associated with using social media to research potential jurors.

Tannera Gibson, Burch, Porter & Johnson, PLLC
Andre Mathis, Butler Snow
Mary Wu Tullis, Baker Donelson
Susan Neal Wiley, Morgan & Morgan