

Mastering the Art of Intermediate and Advanced Discovery 2018

April 5th, 2017

TN Bar Center – Nashville, Tenn.

Total Credits: 6 General

You can't win a trial at the discovery phase, but you certainly can lose one. This CLE is designed to avoid that outcome by addressing intermediate and advanced discovery techniques and topics including matters of ediscovery. Attendees will hear from experienced litigators who will discuss key components of the discovery process in the context of family law, general civil, and criminal matters and its effective use at trial.
