

Saturday Ethics CLE

August 19th, 2017

TN Bar Center – Nashville, Tenn.

Total Credits: 3.0 Dual

Don't have time during the week to get your ethics hours? We have a solution for you! Grab a cup of coffee and join us at our ethics seminar on Saturday, August 19, 2017. This freshly brewed seminar provides you with 3 hours of ethics. Speakers will spill the beans on topics law practice management, ebilling, time and expense entries, practice management relating to eDiscovery and lawyer competence.

8:00 a.m. – 8:30 a.m.

Registration/Welcome

8:30 – 9:30 a.m.

Law Practice Management: A COMMON APPROACH TO eDISCOVERY TODAY

Learn about the force behind today's ediscovery challenges. In this presentation will review common approaches, techniques for managing unstructured data and device management.

Kyle Campbell, LogicForce

9:30 – 10:30 a.m.

The New Normal: The Evolution of Lawyer Competency

The legal industry is being disrupted by new economic realities, increasing risks and threats to information confidentiality, additional professional requirements and evolving client expectations. As a result, lawyer competency is being redefined. In this hour, we will discuss the most significant disrupters affecting your practice and the new knowledge and skills needed to maintain your own competence in this new normal.

Suzanne Rose, Legal Services Consultant

10:30 – 10:45 a.m.

Break

10:45 –11:45 a.m.

e-Billing Industry: How Changes in e-Billing Platforms Will Benefit Your Firm

The legal e-Billing Industry is shifting in significant ways to meet their clients' expectations. Law firm data has become the most valued component of e-Billing service offerings. Accurate and compliant legal invoices are key to insuring accurate and actionable data. In this hour, we will discuss why e-Billing will continue to be a critical component of litigation claims management and is increasingly a requirement of corporate legal departments; guidance on how law firms should respond to the time and expense entry requirements of e-Billing services and what law firms can learn from the billing disciplines imposed upon law firms by their clients.

Suzanne Rose, Legal Services Consultant