

Virtual Juvenile & Children's Law Basics

Nov. 8, 2022 – Zoom Webinar

Program Producer: Charlotte Mattingly, Spurgin & Mattingly

Total Credits: 4 Dual

This year's Juvenile Law Basics forum features the information you need to stay on top of developments in the practice area. This program is designed for newer Juvenile & Children's Law practitioners and will feature topics such as adverse childhood experiences and secondary trauma; guardian ad litem basics and neglect actions; guardian ad litem work in termination of parental rights cases and much more.

10 – 11 a.m. CDT

GAL Basics for Juvenile Court

Learn the fundamentals of serving as a Guardian ad Litem in dependency and neglect actions. This presentation will prepare you to serve as a first-time Guardian ad Litem and, for the experienced practitioners, provide you with a refresher course on best practices. The presentation will focus on Juvenile Court, but we will also discuss the difference between GAL work under Rule 40 & 40A. We will also discuss resources you can utilize to better-inform your practice.
